Bruce Gundersen is an interdisciplinary artist exhibiting his work in a variety of established venues. His collaborative performance art duo Gundersen/ Clark has been included in festivals and contemporary museums in The United States and Europe. His collaborative video work FISHGUN FILMS has documented dance rituals of Southeast and South Asia. His interest in universal cultural legends and myths is an ongoing creative investigation, inspiring his digital art prints.

“I find my inspiration in the belief systems and vernacular art from the ancient and modern cultures of Southeast Asia, regenerating them through the modernity of digital arts.”
